

WHY TRAVEL HEALTH MATTERS:

A JOINT STUDY DAY BETWEEN THE FACULTY OF TRAVEL MEDICINE AND MASTA

FRIDAY 26 JUNE 2015

VENUE - THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS OF GLASGOW

0900 - 0930	Registration, tea and coffee
0930 - 0940	Welcome and introduction	Dr. Mike Jones Dean, Faculty of Travel Medicine
Session 1: Chair - David Ross, MASTA
0940 - 1020	TRAVAX at 30	Fiona Genasi Health Protection Scotland
1020 - 1100	Voluntourism: all about the experience?	Sheila Hall TREC
1100 - 1130	Refreshment break
Session 2: Chair - Sheila Hall, TREC
1130 - 1215	Travellers with long term conditions	Dr. Dipti Patel National Travel Health Network and Centre
1215 - 1300	VFR Travellers	Dr. Ron Behrens London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
1300 - 1345	Lunch
Session 3: Chair – Dr. Mike Jones, Dean, Faculty of Travel Medicine
1345 - 1445	TRAVAX malaria maps	Lorna Boyne and James Munro Health Protection Scotland
1445 – 1530	Healthcare workers as travellers	Dr. David Ross MASTA
1530 - 1615	Advising travellers who trek for charity	Dr. Gerard Flaherty Immediate past president Travel Medicine Society of Ireland
1615 - 1630	Thanks and close	Dr. Mike Jones Dean, Faculty of Travel Medicine